EXHIBIT NOTES AND THANK YOU

We will be presenting a separate prize for seniors as stated in the rules and regulations.

Exhibitors, please make sure your entries are listed on an entry form and tags are properly filled in. Tags are available before exhibit day at the Clandonald Post Office or Clandonald Country Store. Any suggestions you may have for entries to be included in future fair booklets would be greatly appreciated; therefore, a suggestion box will be placed at the Exhibit Hall. Thank you to all who have given suggestions for entries over the years.

A worthy thank you is expressed by the Directors of the Clandonald Agricultural Society to all the convenors and workers for your help this year.

Special thanks to those organizations and persons who have donated towards our fair.

Thanks a bunch!!

Exhibit Hall Workers

Every year we have many volunteers that work at the Exhibit Hall helping make the exhibits a success. Everyone who gives their time deserves our heartfelt thanks.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All entries shall be received on Friday, August 9th from 1 to 3 p.m. No entries shall be received later.
2. All entries are to be left for exhibit for Saturday, August 10th from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
3. All entries shall be removed by 4 p.m. on Saturday, August 10th.

4. The Clandonald Agricultural Society cannot be held responsible for any damage or harm, accident or otherwise, to any person attending the Fair either as an exhibitor or to any exhibit or for any other reason, nor can the Society be held responsible for any accident that may happen at other events or entertainment put on by the Society.
5. There shall be only one exhibit per family in any one class except children under 15 may enter each class in any section. To enter Seniors, you must be 65 and over. People may enter in only one age group category.
6. All entries shall have a class number.
7. An exhibitor's fee of $2 will be charged to all non-members of the Clandonald Agricultural Society.
8. All exhibits must be listed on the printed entry form attached to this booklet. Extra forms are available on request. All entries shall be filled in and signed by the exhibitor prior to presenting to the exhibit taggers.
9. Individual entry tags must be presented with each entry if you have numerous entries. Tags are available at the Clandonald Post Office and Clandonald Country Store.
10. Judging will commence on Friday, August 9th at 3 p.m. No one will be allowed to enter while judging is in progress.
11. Exhibit entries are judged and awarded first, second, and third prize ribbons and a cash prize of $3, $2, or $1 where applicable. If there are no suitable entries, no ribbons or cash prizes will be awarded. All final decisions will be made by the judges. If there are any discrepancies to prize money awarded for exhibits, this needs to be brought forward by 4:30 p.m. on the day of the fair.
12. Where the total number of exhibits in any class is less than three, the judges are at liberty to amalgamate such items with others of like character or where the judges are of the opinion that the exhibits do not justify any award, prizes shall be awarded according to standing.
13. All entries presented for competition must be fresh and clean, and must conform to quantity or size specified, otherwise they will be disqualified. Homemade items should be made within the past 5 years.
14. All exhibits must be the work of the exhibitor and not previously shown at the Clandonald Fair.
15. The director of the executive reserves the right to correct any errors and to make any alterations to the prize list.

FRUITS & VEGETABLES

Fruits

They must be shown with their stems attached. All fruits should be clean, free from blemishes, and uniform size and shape. Apples and crabs may be polished with a soft cloth to improve their shine.

Vegetables

Colour: Should be bright, clean, and attractive. A rich dark colour is preferred.

Condition: Free from blemishes that are caused by insects, disease, dirt, or mechanical damage.

Size: Should be of moderate size. Usually oversized vegetables are coarse, tough, and lacking in flavour.

Uniformity: All items in a display should be similar size, colour, maturity, and shape. All vegetables displayed with tops. Trim tops to 1 to 4 inches.

Beans: Uniform pod length, colour typical of variety, and free of blemishes and bruises. Pods should be crisp, fresh, and free from stringiness and fibre.

Beets: Deep red colour including crown. Top should be trimmed, and roots should have no side hairs and when cut, should not have white rings.

Cabbage: Firm, moderate-sized heads, free of insect damage, with stalk removed but some of the outer leaves left.

Cauliflower: Heads 5" to 8" in diameter with a firm white curd. Firm stems and no leaves showing through the curd.

Cucumber: Should be unblemished with no yellow underside. Stems attached, but blossom removed.

Pickling – 3" long. Slicing – Over 3" long.

Onion: 1" tops, roots trimmed.

Potatoes: Uniform size and shape. Clean and free from disease and blemishes with shallow eyes. No greening or sunburn. Tuber can be washed or just cleaned with a soft brush or cloth but do not break the skin.

Tomatoes: Smooth, uniform size and shape. Shown with stem on.

Zucchini: Smooth, small sized, and uniform.
